

Calling All Artists!

The Champaign Park District relies on local visual and performing artists to contribute to its Bach's Lunch Concert Series, as well as to provide quality instructors for its cultural arts programs and classes. The Springer Cultural Center is seeking talented artists to complement its exhibition space. Call 398-2376 to inquire.

Bach's Lunch Concert Series:

Searching for acoustic musicians! I'm looking for a musical Mozart who would like to duet and who can fill me (or my beautiful historical lobby) with the melodies and harmonies of serene tranquility. This musician can perform any genre of music as long as it strikes a chord with the audience and captivates for an entire lunch hour.

Dance Arts Workshops:

Looking for talented dancers who can direct my twinkle toes! I need a partner who can perfect my pas de deux, teach me to tango, work on my waltz or set my square dance in a class designed to be fun and educational. Any medium of dance is good, but the classes should be creative! I need an instructor who will sweep me off my feet with breathtaking moves!

Art Exhibits:

Seeking visual artists who need to be into molding, sculpting, painting, drawing or photography and ready to color my hallways!

Workshops:

Requesting talented teachers! I want independent thinkers with 'artsy' ideas to share with the world (or at least with a small class). This leader should be ready to take me on a creative journey through method and form. Any medium will do as long as this instructor inspires creativity and nourishes growth.
